

Should old people live with young people or should they live in homes for the elderly?

Discuss.

Today, there are a lot of old people and young people all over the world. Therefore, there are many opinions show that old people should live in the clubs for the elder. This essay will discuss about this statement.

The first reason is the love. Sons or daughters cannot send the parents to the clubs because they have to have their own responsibility. In Vietnamese culture, a person cannot consider success without loving their own family especial their parents. Parents are the best although they are old. Secondly, the old people should not live in the clubs the young people always need their experience. In science or technology area, for instance, the old professors will teach all skills for the younger people. By the way they will increase themselves and help their country. Lastly, some old people will think these clubs are prisons. They will be lack of freedom when they live in these areas. As the consequently, they will come to suicide.

On the other hand, the old people who have no family should live together in the same clubs. By the way, they will find out happiness with the same age people. It leads to that they can share every things in their past until present. Furthermore, the local or international organizations will be easy to take care of them. As the result, they may have the second family.

In conclusion, I think that the old people who have to family should not live in clubs. However, the others should move to these clubs to avoid loneliness. In this statement, it depends on the ways of thinking in each person about the old people.
